APPOINTMENTS AND PROMOTIONS

SANCTUARY BUILDER NAMES PURCHASING DIRECTOR

(May 2, 2007— Chandler, Ariz.)—Weston Helbert brings ten years of experience in the homebuilder industry to his new position as purchasing director for Chandler-based Sanctuary Builder. In his new position, Helbert will lead the Sanctuary Builder team in managing the company's vertical construction budgets and contracts, while aiming to lower the company's vertical construction costs and increase margins for the company.

Helbert joins Sanctuary Builders after having worked for The Estridge Companies, an Indiana-based homebuilder, as well as D.R. Horton (Continental Series) in Phoenix, where he began as a superintendent and was promoted to purchasing director.

A graduate of Indiana University at Indianapolis, Helbert received his Bachelor of Science in Public Affairs (BSPA) degree in management. An Indianapolis native, Helbert currently resides in Scottsdale, with his wife Toni, and dogs, Juno, Roca and Rutherford.
